REMEMBER THAT THERE IS NO PROOF OF THE FOLLOWING!!!!

I believe that the William Cain buried near Ammon, NC is not the husband of Sarah Regan and Olive Regan. The husband of these two ladies received a land grant in 1738 known as "Cain's Camp" that was located near present Tar Heel, Bladen County, NC in the vicinity of Bryant's Millpond and present Highways 87 and 131. Land could have extended into what is now Robeson County, NC.

Why would someone transport William's body by boat across the Cape Fear River and then carry him about 25 miles to be buried with the Turnbull Township Cains when his relatives all lived in the Tar Heel area?
