Generation No. 1

1. DANIEL¹ MCDANIELL, SR.^{1,2,3} was born Abt. 1690 in Glengarry, Scotland^{4,5,6}, and died Bet. April 16, 1733 - May 02, 1734 in Bertie Precinct, NC^{7,8,9}. He married SARAH BROWNE^{10,11,12} 1712 in Chowan County, NC^{13,14,15}, daughter of THOMAS BROWN and CHRISTIAN MUVLE. She was born Abt. 1695^{16,17,18}, and died Aft. 1735 in Edgecombe County, NC^{19,20,21}.

Notes for DANIEL MCDANIELL, SR.:

Emigrated to America in 1716 aboard the ship, Scipio. He is listed as settling in Powhatan, Va. The Clan Donald has him in Family tree #212.

Clan Donald information: McDanell, Daniel

Jacobite captured at Preston. Transported from Liverpool to Antigua on the Scipio, Master John Scaisbrick, 30 March, 1716 (State Papers/Colonial)

This information from DIRECTORY OF SCOTS, banished to the American Plantations, 1650-1775, by David Dobsen, Baltimore by the Genealogical Publishing Co., Inc., 1983

Norman MacDonald in Edinburgh thinks that we could be Keppoch MacDonalds as many of them were at Preston and the McDanell is simply what some Englishman heard when he was "tollied" for shipment. Daniel seems to have escaped when the Scipio put in somewhere in VA or NC.

Butlar, Zachariah

"Daus. Mary Plummer, land on each side of Little Rockfish near Beaver Creek, Rebecca Butler. Sons Daniel Butlar tract of land on east side of Cape Fear River bounded by James McDaniel, William and Moses Butlar, the land I now live. Exec. David Thames. Wits. John Butlar, Cornelius Thames."

(Note: He spells surname both ways; Butlar and Butler)

Zachariah Butler's father, Samuel Butler, moved to Cumberland County from Halifax County (NC). Zachariah married Rebecca Locke from a land owning Fayetteville family. They were Quakers and they settled in Gray's Creek a large Quaker community. They had a meeting hall there, Dunn's Chapel. In the mid 1700's, the Quakers closed their meeting hall and moved, enmass, to Guilford County. The Butlers and a few other Quaker families were large land owners in Gray's Creek so they stayed. As they did not have enough Quakers to form a seperate meeting group, they intergrated with the Baptist and built Cape Fear Baptist Church. You can see the Quaker influence in the arcitecture of the church; the plainness, the upstairs balcony for the slaves, and the dividing wall down the middle of the church. The wall was to seperate the men and women -- the women on the North side and the men on the South side. The wall, which was about three to four feet high, was removed during a remodeling of the church in the 1960's. It was in place when I was a child and attended church there.

There is a reference to Samuel Butler paying taxes in Bladen County, NC, in 1781 and 1784. Also reference in 1781 and 1784 is Joseph Butler...which must be Joseph, Jr.

Also listed in 1784 is Robert Butler and Stephen Butler in Sampson County and Zachriah Butler in Bladen County. [bmac6.FTW]

WILLIAM BUTLER...REPORT OF HIS DEATH.....

On Monday, August 22, 1898, William Butler died. The following is the report of his death in the Fayetteville Observer dated August 22, 1898. A microfilm of this is in the Genealogy Department of The Cumberland County Public Library.

A Tragic Death

At two o'clock this afternoon Mr. William Butler, an aged citizen of Gray's Creek township, died suddenly of apoplexy while sitting conversing with Judge Buxton in the latter's office.

About ten minutes before two o'clock Judge Buxton was sitting in his office on Anderson Street when an old gentleman, probably 70 years of age, walked in, and, without giving his name, began a conversation. Though he made no complaint, he seemed tired and a little overcome with heat. Apparently he had just dropped in to rest and though Judge Buxton did not know his name his face was familiar. He had just told the Judge that his home was in Gray's Creek but that lately he had been in the saw mill business in Robeson, when suddenly his head fell back and his jaw dropped. In five minutes he was dead. A doctor was sent for and restoratives applied, but it was too late. The body was removed to the undertakers to await the coming of relatives.

Mr. Butler was a well-known blacksmith in Gray's Creek for years. He married a sister of Dr. McKinnon.

(Note: He was not married to the sister of Dr. McKinnon ...Hiram Bonaparte Butler was married to Narcissus McKinnon. William Butler was married to Sarah Elizabeth Melvin).

Page 355 * William Buttler [sic], Pvt, Company C, 2nd Battalion, Enlisted in Cumberland County at age 37, Sept 2 1863, for the war. Present or accounted for through Dec 1864.

This Company was originated at Fayetteville, Cumberland County, NC where it was mustered into the Confederate States Service September 2, 1863. Composed exclusively of employees of the Fayetteville Arsenal and Armory, the Company was originated for local defense and special service and was assigned to the Battalion as Company C. Since it functioned as part of the Battalion, its history is recorded as part of the Battalion history.

2nd BATTALION N.C. LOCAL DEFENSE TROOPS

This battalion, commonly referred to as the Arsenal Guard, was composed of employees, detailed men, and nonconscripts who worked at the Fayetteville Arsenal and Armory. During the course of the war seven companies were raised at this manufactory and were organized into a battalion, which was officially designated the 2nd Battalion N C Local Defense Troops.

In September, 1861, Captain John C Booth, commandant of the arsenal, raised for guard duty at the arsenal a company composed entirely of men who were employed in the Ordnance Department. This company was referred to as the "Ordnance Detachment" or as "Booth's Company, Ordnance Regulars, C.S.A." A second company, composed of nonconscripts and men unfit for duty, was raised for local defense and guard duty by an order of the Secretary of War, dated June 20, 1863. With the organization of this company the battalion organization was also established, and the new company became Company B of the battalion.

Three additional companies were organized in September, 1863, for local defense and special service. These companies were composed exclusively of employees of the arsenal and became Companies C, D, and E of the battalion. A cavalry company was authorized in February, 1864, and completed its organization in April. It was known as the "Mounted Riflemen" and became Company F of the battalion. The seventh and final company in the battalion, Company G, was organized late in 1864 and was composed of soldiers detailed for light duty.

With the exception of two companies, the battalion remained at the Fayetteville Arsenal and Armory until January 1865. The men drilled once a week; the company officers and noncommissioned officers drilled half an hour every day. In May-June, 1864, Companies B and F were ordered to Weldon. In early July Company B was ordered to Wilmington and arrived there July 4. On July 8 it was moved to Camp Lamb. From there it was moved to Smithville. On November 2 the company moved to Fort Caswell, where it remained until moved to Fort Campbell on November 27. Orders were received on December 25 to proceed to Fort Fisher, then under attack. On December 28, after the Federals withdrew, the company was ordered back to Fort Campbell. Company F was moved to Garysburg after its arrival at Weldon in May-June 1864. From there it moved to Franklin, Virginia, on August 14, 1864. By the end of the war it was back at Garysburg. It remained in that area attached to the 4th Sub-District, 2nd Military District, for the balance of the war.

During this time the balance of the battalion remained at Fayetteville. On January 14, 1865, Lieutenant Frederick L. Childs, commanding the battalion and arsenal, was ordered to send "all" his "garrison" to Wilmington. When the battalion arrived on January 17, 1865, Childs was ordered to return to Fayetteville with his "operatives" and to leave the "guards." With the fall of Fort Fisher on January 15, 1865, Company B was ordered to Fort Anderson. When Wilmington was evacuated, February 20-21, 1865, the company was sent to obstruct the navigation of the Cape Fear River. With the area in Federal hands, the company retired to Fayetteville, where it and some men from the other companies of the battalion joined Lieutenant General William J. Hardee's command. On the approach of General William T. Sherman's army, the entire command was put to the task of dismantling and moving the machinery. The Federals occupied Fayetteville on March 11, 1865. The portion of the battalion that remained behind had moved to "the Gulf in Moore County." Here it remained until the surrender of General Joseph E. Johnston's army on April 26, 1865. The men who were with the army and those in Moore County were included in the surrender.

This battalion erroneously designated the 6th Battalion Armory Guard in Moore's Roster and in Clark's Regiments. Although it was locally referred to as the Armory Guard, it was officially designated as the 2nd Battalion N C Local Defense Troops.
